Reflection

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Gospel today conveys how we are called to imitate Jesus through humility and service.

We are reminded that the Son of God became man and surrendered His life into the hands of men so that we might be saved. The life of Jesus was centered around His Father's mission and the service of mankind. And this is how we ought to live — in imitation of Christ.

James and John wanted to ensure they had a spot in heaven with Jesus. They were concerned about themselves in that moment — "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."

Jesus quickly reminded them, "whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."

Our culture constantly encourages us to do what we can to get ahead in this world, to do what feels good, no matter the effects — that power, authority, and wealth should be our goals in life.

Our faith offers us something different and fulfilling — a life of humility and service. As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in service of God and neighbor, just as Jesus did. Our life is not about us. It is about fulfilling God's glorious plan for each one of us.

So, we must ask ourselves, are we living out God's plan for our lives? Is my life centered on Christ and those around me or is it centered on me?

It can be difficult to know God's plan for our entire life. He sees the whole picture — we only see the now. All we can do is seek Him daily. If each day is centered on Him, then our entire lives will become the work of Jesus.

Reflexión

Vigésimo Noveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Nuestro Evangelio de hoy transmite cómo estamos llamados a imitar a Jesús a través de la humildad y el servicio.

Se nos recuerda que el Hijo de Dios se hizo hombre y entregó su vida en manos de los hombres para que pudiéramos ser salvos. La vida de Jesús se centró en la misión de Su Padre y el servicio a la humanidad. Y así es como debemos vivir: imitando a Cristo.

Santiago y Juan querían asegurarse de tener un lugar en el cielo con Jesús. Estaban preocupados por ellos mismos en ese momento: "Concede que en tu gloria podamos sentarnos uno a tu derecha y el otro a tu izquierda".

Jesús rápidamente les recordó, "el que quiera ser grande entre ustedes será su servidor; el que quiera ser el primero entre ustedes será esclavo de todos".

Nuestra cultura nos anima constantemente a hacer lo que podamos para salir adelante en este mundo, a hacer lo que se siente bien, sin importar los efectos: que el poder, la autoridad y la riqueza deben ser nuestras metas en la vida.

Nuestra fe nos ofrece algo diferente y satisfactorio: una vida de humildad y servicio. Como mayordomos cristianos, estamos llamados a vivir nuestra vida al servicio de Dios y del prójimo, tal como lo hizo Jesús. Nuestra vida no se trata de nosotros. Se trata de cumplir el plan glorioso de Dios para cada uno de nosotros. Entonces, debemos preguntarnos, ¿estamos viviendo el plan de Dios para nuestras vidas? ¿Mi vida está centrada en Cristo y los que me rodean o está centrada en mí?

Puede ser difícil conocer el plan de Dios para toda nuestra vida. Él ve la imagen completa, nosotros solo vemos el ahora. Todo lo que podemos hacer es buscarlo a diario. Si cada día está centrado en Él, entonces toda nuestra vida se convertirá en la obra de Jesús.
