18th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Today’s Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let’s face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish. But let’s see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools!

In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about “stuff” as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn’t have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff. Patting himself on the back, he thought about what good times he would have in the years ahead. But Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man’s last day on the earth. And he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish!

Don’t be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God’s eyes, Christian steward. And you will be rich in what matters most

XVIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El pasaje del Evangelio de hoy es una palmada en la espalda del Cielo para todos los que nos esforzamos por vivir una vida de mayordomía. Nos recuerda por qué vivimos de la manera en que lo hacemos y por qué tomamos las decisiones que tomamos. Seamos realistas, si realmente adoptamos esta forma de vida, habrá personas que encontrarán nuestras elecciones, basadas en servir a Dios y a los demás, francamente tontas. Pero veamos qué piensa Dios. Alerta de spoiler: ¡resulta que los mayordomos cristianos no son tontos!

En este pasaje, Jesús deja en claro que la vida no se trata de “cosas”, como cuenta la parábola del hombre de negocios rico que pensó que tenía todo resuelto. El hombre tenía tal abundancia de cosas que no tenía espacio para guardarlas todas. Entonces, pensando en las cosas terrenales y no en lo de arriba, decidió construir un lugar más grande para almacenar todas esas cosas. Dándose palmaditas en la espalda, pensó en los buenos momentos que tendría en los próximos años. Pero Jesús nos dice que ese día resultaría ser el último día del hombre en la tierra. Y lo había pasado pensando sólo en sí mismo. ¡Que tonto!

No te avergüences de vivir diferente a las personas que te rodean. Tenga confianza al establecer prioridades basadas en lo que está arriba. Eres sabio a los ojos de Dios, mayordomo cristiano. Y serás rico en lo que más importa
