22nd Sunday In Ordinary Time

Today's readings remind us of a chief virtue that characterizes the Christian steward: humility. This is a virtue that is widely thought of as a form of self-abasement. That understanding, however, is off the mark. Humility is simply the awareness of who (and Whose) we truly are.

XXII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan una virtud principal que caracteriza al mayordomo cristiano: la humildad. Esta es una virtud que se considera ampliamente como una forma de auto-humillación. Ese entendimiento, sin embargo, está fuera de lugar. La humildad es simplemente la conciencia de quienes (y de quién) somos verdaderamente.

Por un lado, somos hijos del Dios Altísimo que nos amó hasta la existencia y que, en virtud de nuestro Bautismo, tenemos a la Santísima Trinidad morando en nosotros. Por otro lado, somos niños que dependemos completamente de Dios para nuestra existencia y para cada respiración que tomamos.

Nuestro Señor habla de la verdadera humildad en nuestro pasaje evangélico de Lucas, contando la parábola de los invitados a un banquete de bodas e instruyéndonos a no buscar un lugar de honor en la mesa del banquete, no sea que llegue un invitado más distinguido y se nos pida que pasar a un lugar más bajo.

Jesús tiene mucho más en mente aquí que una lección de etiqueta. Él nos está recordando que toda la gloria pertenece a Dios. La imagen visual que Él ofrece de tener que escabullirse a un asiento más bajo en la mesa señala lo tontos que somos cuando nos olvidamos de darle a Dios el crédito por nuestras bendiciones y talentos.

Por otro lado, cuando vivimos en humildad, reconociendo que todo lo que tenemos es un don de Dios y usando esos dones para servirlo a Él y a los demás, entonces Dios nos "exalta" llenándonos aún más de Sí mismo y de Su gracia.

Jesús continúa animándonos a servir y compartir nuestras bendiciones con las personas que enfrentan circunstancias que les harían imposible ofrecernos alguna ventaja o prestigio mundano: "los pobres, los lisiados, los cojos".

Nuestra actitud y cómo servimos y compartimos debe estar centrada en la verdadera humildad, reconociendo que todos somos "pequeños" a los ojos de Dios. Todos somos Sus hijos; hermanos y hermanas invitados al banquete celestial de nuestro Padre.

Birthdays and Wedding Anniversaries

Do you or someone you know have a Birthday or Wedding Anniversary coming up? If so please let us know and we will post a special announcement in our Bulletin. Please contact the parish office @ 936-634-6833

On one hand, we are children of the Most High God who loved us into existence and who, by virtue of our Baptism, have the Holy Trinity dwelling within us. On the other hand, we are children who are completely dependent on God for our existence and for every breath we take.

Our Lord speaks of true humility in our Gospel passage from Luke, telling the parable of the guests invited to a wedding banquet and instructing us not to seek a place of honor at the banquet table, lest a more distinguished guest arrives and we are asked to move to a lower place.

Jesus has much more in mind here than an etiquette lesson. He is reminding us that all glory belongs to God. The visual image He offers in having to slink down to a lower seat at the table points out how silly we are when we forget to give God the credit for our blessings and talents.

On the other hand, when we live in humility — recognizing that all we have is a gift from God and using those gifts to serve Him and others — then God "exalts" us by filling us with even more of Himself and His grace.

Jesus goes on to encourage us to serve and share our blessings with people facing circumstances that would make it impossible for them to offer us any worldly advantage or prestige — "the poor, the crippled, the lame."

Our attitude and how we serve and share should be centered on true humility — recognizing that we are all "little" ones in the eyes of God. We are all His children; brothers and sisters invited to our Father's heavenly banquet.

Presentación Sobre, "El Misterio Pascual" Muerte y Resurrección de Jesucristo
