27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today show us that living a stewardship way of life, that is, a life focused on serving God and His Kingdom, is not easy. They also show us that our lives belong to God, not to us and that God will indeed bring about the fulfillment of His kingdom. We just need to have faith that He can do it and commit to our small part in His grand design. This is both our privilege and responsibility as Christian stewards.

Jesus makes this privilege and responsibility clear in today's Gospel passage from Luke. When the apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, He tells them that even a mustard seed-sized faith is all that is needed to move mountains (because it is God who does the heavy lifting). We need only take the tiniest step forward, and He will do the rest.

But living our lives in His service is also very much our responsibility, as Jesus explains through the parable of the unprofitable servant later in this passage. Our Lord describes a scene in which a servant has just come in from tending to the master's affairs and asks whether it would be reasonable for the master to begin waiting on his servant. Of course, it would not be reasonable! The servant would be expected to continue to serve his master until he has completed the work the master has given him that day. Jesus says we should have this same attitude before God.

The time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us are all God's. Our very lives belong to Him. Whatever we do on God's behalf with our lives and our gifts is simply our God-given responsibility.

27 Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Nuestras lecturas de hoy nos muestran que vivir un estilo de vida de mayordomía, es decir, una vida enfocada en servir a Dios y Su Reino, no es fácil. También nos muestran que nuestras vidas le pertenecen a Dios, no a nosotros, y que Dios ciertamente traerá el cumplimiento de Su reino. Solo necesitamos tener fe en que Él puede hacerlo y comprometernos con nuestra pequeña parte en Su gran diseño. Este es tanto nuestro privilegio como nuestra responsabilidad como administradores cristianos.

Jesús aclara este privilegio y responsabilidad en el pasaje del Evangelio de hoy de Lucas. Cuando los apóstoles le piden al Señor que aumente su fe, Él les dice que incluso una fe del tamaño de una semilla de mostaza es todo lo que se necesita para mover montañas (porque es Dios quien hace el trabajo pesado). Solo necesitamos dar el más mínimo paso adelante, y Él hará el resto.

Pero vivir nuestras vidas en Su servicio también es nuestra gran responsabilidad, como lo explica Jesús a través de la parábola del siervo inútil más adelante en este pasaje. Nuestro Señor describe una escena en la que un sirviente acaba de llegar de atender los asuntos del amo y pregunta si sería razonable que el amo comenzara a atender a su sirviente. Por supuesto, ¡no sería razonable! Se espera que el sirviente continúe sirviendo a su amo hasta que haya completado el trabajo que el amo le ha dado ese día. Jesús dice que debemos tener esta misma actitud ante Dios.

El tiempo, los talentos y el tesoro que se nos ha confiado son todos de Dios. Nuestras propias vidas le pertenecen a Él. Cualquier cosa que hagamos en nombre de Dios con nuestras vidas y nuestros dones es simplemente nuestra responsabilidad dada por Dios. El estilo de vida de la mayordomía hace realidad el privilegio y la responsabilidad de servir a Cristo y a su reino.
