Nov. 13, 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, our readings offer a sober reminder that this life is not our aim and that God's justice will triumph in the end. Now is the time to get our priorities in order, putting God above all else as his faithful stewards.

Our Lord brings home the urgency of right priorities in our Gospel passage from Luke, reminding the people around him who were looking at the temple nearby, "All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Our Lord reminds us that all in this world is passing. We must keep our focus on eternity.

Yet before the eternal bliss of heaven, we should expect to be tried and tested. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name."

Sounds scary.

But if you are living a stewardship way of life, there is nothing to fear. You have a plan in place. All you need to do is stick with it. Put our Lord first in your time, with your talents, and through your use of treasure. This way of life is not easy. But Jesus promises it will lead to eternal salvation and the joy of union with Him. "You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance, you will secure your lives." Onward Christian stewards, the struggle is worth the joy that awaits!

Se llevará a cabo una Misa Conmemorativa Bilingüe el 21 de Noviembre a las 7:00 pm para honrar y recordar a todos nuestros seres queridos que se han ido a descansar con Dios nuestro Señor. Le invitamos a traer una foto de su familiar fallecido para colocar junto a sus velas en la Iglesia.

Suena aterrador.

Pero si está viviendo un estilo de vida de mayordomía, no hay nada que temer. Tienes un plan en marcha. Todo lo que necesitas hacer es apegarte a él. Pon a nuestro Señor primero en tu tiempo, con tus talentos y mediante el uso de tu tesoro. Esta forma de vida no es fácil. Pero Jesús promete que conducirá a la salvación eterna y al gozo de la unión con Él. "Seréis aborrecidos de todos por causa de mi nombre, pero ni un cabello de vuestra cabeza será destruido. Por su perseverancia, asegurarán sus vidas."

Memorial Candle Mass

A Bilingual Memorial Mass will be held November 21 at 7:00pm to honor and remember all our loved ones who have gone home to rest with our Lord. You are more than welcome to bring a framed photo of your deceased family member to place next to your candles in the Church.

Veteran's Day Prayer

Holy Father,

we ask you to be with us here as we celebrate Veterans Day. Today we honor some of the strongest, brightest, and by far the most courageous people that you have ever put on this earth, who gave their best when they were called upon to serve and protect their Country. Today we honor the men and women from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines and the Coast Guard.

We ask you Lord to send your Holy Spirit down upon us and we pray that you will bless them for their unselfish service in the continual struggle to preserve our freedoms, our safety, and our country's heritage, for all of us.

As we sit here today let us not forget the friends and family members that have gone before in the time of war. As we look back at our memories of the times that we served, I am sure that you knew someone that lost their life in the time of war; we pray for them today.
Amen
