Sunday, April 30

Today's readings on this fourth Sunday of Easter offer us a glimpse into the heart of our loving Savior. He is the Good Shepherd and we can confidently place our trust in Him as we live the stewardship way of life. This endearing image of Jesus as our shepherd, and His personal love for each one of us, is described in our Gospel passage from John, through the words of Jesus Himself. Here we read Jesus' description of Himself as the "Good Shepherd." He says of Himself, "The sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice." This aspect of our Lord's tender and personal love for each one of us is a compelling reason to embrace the stewardship way of life — in the offering of our time, talent, and treasure to Him, we can express our gratitude to Him for the incomprehensible love He has for us. Embracing this way of life certainly requires trust on our part. But Christ has proven Himself worthy of our trust. He "bore our sins in His body." He calls Himself our shepherd and He offers Himself as the guardian of our souls. He has withheld nothing of Himself and His goodness from us. He would never ask anything of us that would bring us harm. He tells us "I came so that [you] might have life and have it more abundantly."
This Easter season, let us resolve to entrust ourselves and our lives gratefully to Him.

Domingo 30 de Abril

Las lecturas de hoy en este cuarto domingo de Pascua nos ofrecen un vistazo al corazón de nuestro amado Salvador. Él es el Buen Pastor y podemos depositar con confianza nuestra confianza en Él mientras vivimos el estilo de vida de la corresponsabilidad. Esta entrañable imagen de Jesús como nuestro pastor, y su amor personal por cada uno de nosotros, se describe en nuestro pasaje evangélico de Juan, a través de las palabras del mismo Jesús. Aquí leemos la descripción de Jesús de sí mismo como el "Buen Pastor". Él dice de sí mismo: "Las ovejas oyen su voz, como el pastor llama a sus propias ovejas por su nombre y las saca. Cuando ha echado fuera a todos los suyos, va delante de ellos y las ovejas lo siguen, porque reconocen su voz. Este aspecto del amor tierno y personal de nuestro Señor por cada uno de nosotros es una razón convincente para adoptar el estilo de vida de la corresponsabilidad: en la ofrenda de nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro a Él, podemos expresarle nuestra gratitud por el incomprendible amor que tiene por nosotros. Adoptar esta forma de vida ciertamente requiere confianza de nuestra parte. Pero Cristo ha demostrado ser digno de nuestra confianza. Él "llevó nuestros pecados en Su cuerpo". Se llama a sí mismo nuestro pastor y se ofrece como guardián de nuestras almas. Él no ha retenido nada de Sí mismo y Su bondad de nosotros. Él nunca nos pediría nada que pudiera causarnos daño. Él nos dice: "Vine para que [vosotros] tengáis vida y la tengáis en abundancia".

En este tiempo pascual, resolvámonos a encomendarnos a nosotros mismos y nuestra vida con gratitud a Él.
