YHWH A YHWH GRACE — A GRACIA

FROM THE

The readings today invite us to see salvation as a banquet prepared by God. Isaiah speaks of the Lord who gathers all peoples on his holy mountain, wipes away every tear, and destroys death forever. Psalm 23 echoes this promise: the Lord is our shepherd who prepares a table for us and leads us to dwell in his house.

In the Gospel, Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to a royal wedding feast. The invitation is generous and universal, but it must be received with a changed heart. The wedding garment reminds us that faith cannot remain only in words; it must be clothed in love, righteousness, and works of charity.

St. Paul, writing to the Philippians, shows us this garment in action. Whether in abundance or need, he has learned to trust in Christ, who strengthens him. His life is not ruled by comfort, but by confidence in God's providence.

We too are invited to the Lord's feast, especially in the Eucharist. Let us not take this invitation lightly. May we come with grateful hearts, clothed in charity, ready to live as guests of the Kingdom.

Fr Denzil Vithanage

PASTOR'S

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a ver la salvación como un banquete preparado por Dios. Isaías habla del Señor que reúne a todos los pueblos en su monte santo, enjuga toda lágrima y destruye la muerte para siempre. El Salmo 23 se hace eco de esta promesa: el Señor es nuestro pastor, que nos prepara una mesa y nos lleva a morar en su casa.

En el Evangelio, Jesús compara el reino de los cielos con un banquete nupcial real. La invitación es generosa y universal, pero debe recibirse con un corazón transformado. El vestido de bodas nos recuerda que la fe no puede quedarse solo en palabras; debe revestirse de amor, justicia y obras de caridad.

San Pablo, en su carta a los Filipenses, nos muestra este vestido en acción. Tanto en la abundancia como en la necesidad, ha aprendido a confiar en Cristo, quien lo fortalece. Su vida no se rige por la comodidad, sino por la confianza en la providencia de Dios.

Nosotros también estamos invitados al banquete del Señor, especialmente en la Eucaristía. No tomemos esta invitación a la ligera. Que podamos venir con corazones agradecidos, revestidos de caridad, dispuestos a vivir como huéspedes del Reino.
