FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

On this Solemnity of All Saints, we have the profound joy of celebrating our brothers and sisters in Christ, the saints. Their lives remind us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. Through Baptism, each of us receives the call to holiness and discipleship. In other words, we are all called to become saints.

The stewardship way of life helps us answer that call in the ordinary circumstances of daily life, offering ourselves back to God with grateful hearts.

Our First Reading from Revelation gives us a glimpse of heaven: "a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people and tongue." They stand before the throne of God, praising the Lamb who has redeemed them. Their joy did not come without sacrifice. They re-mained faithful through suffering and trials, trusting in God's grace until the end.

St. John offers us great encouragement in today's Second Reading: "See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are." Already we are God's children, but an even greater joy awaits us. "We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is." That promise gives us hope and strengthens us to persevere.

In today's Gospel, Jesus proclaims the Beatitudes. These are not simply beautiful sayings or lofty ideals. They describe the heart of a disciple. The poor in spirit, the merciful, the pure of heart, the peacemakers, and those who remain faithful through persecution reveal lives transformed by God's grace.

These virtues run contrary to many of the values our culture celebrates. We cannot produce them by our own effort. They are the fruit of a life rooted in prayer, nourished by the sacraments, and shaped by an ever-deepening relationship with Christ.

As Christian stewards, we seek to grow in these virtues day by day, relying not on our own strength but on God's grace. May the witness and prayers of our brothers and sisters in Christ, the saints, encourage us as we continue our own journey toward the everlasting joy of heaven.

Fr Denzil Vithanage

En esta Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, tenemos la profunda alegría de celebrar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, los santos. Sus vidas nos recuerdan que la santidad no está reservada a unos pocos elegidos. Mediante el Bautismo, cada uno de nosotros recibe el llamado a la santidad y al discipulado. En otras palabras, todos estamos llamados a ser santos.

El modo de vida de servicio nos ayuda a responder a ese llamado en las circunstancias cotidianas, ofreciéndonos a Dios con corazones agradecidos.

Nuestra Primera Lectura del Apocalipsis nos da una visión del cielo: “una gran multitud, que nadie podía contar, de todas las naciones, razas, pueblos y lenguas”. Están de pie ante el trono de Dios, alabando al Cordero que los ha redimido. Su alegría no llegó sin sacrificio. Permanecieron fieles a través del sufrimiento y las pruebas, confiando en la gracia de Dios hasta el final.

San Juan nos ofrece un gran aliento en la Segunda Lectura de hoy: “Mirad qué amor nos ha otorgado el Padre para que seamos llamados hijos de Dios. Y lo somos”. Ya somos hijos de Dios, pero nos espera una alegría aún mayor. “Sabemos que cuando se manifieste, seremos semejantes a él, porque lo veremos tal como es”. Esta promesa nos da esperanza y nos fortalece para perseverar.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús proclama las Bienaventuranzas. No se trata simplemente de bellas palabras o ideales elevados. Describen el corazón de un discípulo. Los pobres de espíritu, los misericordiosos, los puros de corazón, los pacificadores y quienes permanecen fieles en medio de la persecución revelan vidas transformadas por la gracia de Dios.

Estas virtudes son contrarias a muchos de los valores que nuestra cultura celebra. No podemos producirlas por nuestro propio esfuerzo. Son el fruto de una vida arraigada en la oración, nutrida por los sacramentos y moldeada por una relación cada vez más profunda con Cristo.

Como cristianos, buscamos crecer en estas virtudes día a día, confiando no en nuestras propias fuerzas, sino en la gracia de Dios. Que el testimonio y las oraciones de nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, los santos, nos animen mientras continuamos nuestro propio camino hacia la alegría eterna del cielo.
