FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

What Have We Done with God's Gifts?

One day, each of us will give an account of what we have done with the gifts God entrusted to us.—including the gift of time. Will we discover that we have spent our days protecting what we received, or using it to love?

In today's Gospel, the third servant buries his talent because he is afraid. His tragedy is not that he received less than the others, but that fear kept him from responding to his master's trust. How often do we bury our gifts beneath excuses: "Someone else can do it better," "I don't have enough," or "Perhaps another day"?

The woman in Proverbs offers another way. With willing hands, she works and reaches out to the poor. Psalm 128 reminds us that those who walk in the Lord's ways find blessing in the fruit of their labor. And St. Paul urges us to stay awake: we do not know when the Lord will come.

What gift is God asking you to uncover today? Perhaps it is a word of encouragement, an act of forgiveness, a talent placed at the service of the Church, or time offered to someone in need.

Let us not wait for a perfect moment. May we live faithfully now, so that one day we may hear: "Well done, my good and faithful servant … Come, share your master's joy."

Fr. Denzil Vithanage

¿Qué hemos hecho con los dones de Dios?

Un día, cada uno de nosotros rendirá cuentas de lo que ha hecho con los dones que Dios nos confió, incluyendo el don del tiempo. ¿Descubriremos que hemos dedicado nuestros días a proteger lo que recibimos o a usarlo para amar?

En el Evangelio de hoy, el tercer siervo entierra su talento por miedo. Su tragedia no radica en haber recibido menos que los demás, sino en que el miedo le impidió responder a la confianza de su amo. ¿Cuántas veces enterramos nuestros dones bajo excusas como: "Alguien más puede hacerlo mejor", "No tengo suficiente" o "Quizás otro día"?

La mujer de Proverbios nos ofrece otra alternativa. Con manos dispuestas, trabaja y ayuda a los pobres. El Salmo 128 nos recuerda que quienes andan en los caminos del Señor encuentran bendición en el fruto de su trabajo. Y San Pablo nos exhorta a permanecer despiertos: no sabemos cuándo vendrá el Señor.

¿Qué don te pide Dios que descubras hoy? Quizás sea una palabra de aliento, un acto de perdón, un talento puesto al servicio de la Iglesia o tiempo ofrecido a alguien necesitado.

No esperemos el momento perfecto. Vivamos con fidelidad ahora, para que un día podamos oír: "Bien hecho, siervo bueno y fiel… Ven, comparte la alegría de tu Señor".

Padre Denzil Vithanage

When a family in our parish experiences the loss of a loved one, a simple meal, a helping hand, or a caring presence can mean so much.

We are inviting parishioners with kind and compassionate hearts to help form a St. Patrick Bereavement Committee—a ministry that will lovingly prepare and serve a meal after funeral services and offer comfort and fellowship to grieving families.

If you feel called to cook, serve, organize, or simply be there, we warmly invite you to join us.

If interested, please complete the form located in the churc foyer and turn into the church office.
